

Construction began on August 1, 2022 at 7th and Brannan St in South of Market

The 7th and Brannan project will provide permanent supportive housing for 120 families and individuals who have experienced homelessness as well as 100 homes for families with low incomes and one management unit. Construction completion is slated for summer 2024.

View the other side to see how you can stay up to date on construction activities.

Construction began on August 1, 2022 at
7th and Brannan St in South of Market

The 7th and Brannan project will provide permanent supportive housing for 120 families and individuals who have experienced homelessness as well as 100 homes for families with low incomes and one management unit. Construction completion is slated for summer 2024.

View the other side to see how you can stay up to date on construction activities.

Stay Informed

To receive monthly updates on construction progress and notifications on street closures and construction activities outside of normal hours please visit

7thandbrannan.org. There you can click on the contact link and request to be on the project mailing list

Scan QR Code
for translations
of this notice or to visit the website

Stay Informed

To receive monthly updates on construction progress and notifications on street closures and construction activities outside of normal hours please visit

7thandbrannan.org. There you can click on the contact link and request to be on the project mailing list

Scan QR Code
for translations
of this notice or
to visit the
website